A NOTE FROM THE PRODUCING ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Welcome to Civic Theatre's 93rd season- IGNITE! This theme encompasses all the passion and energy our staff and volunteers are feeling about our very ambitious line-up of exciting shows this season! Every year we try and offer a broad variety of offerings to give our audiences a smorgasbord of high-quality theatre to enjoy. And this year is no exception.

We kick off the season with madcap hilarity and mystery as we present one of the most produced plays currently circulating through community and regional theaters, CLUE! And we continue the comedic ride as we blend MainStage and Civic Youth actors in the incredibly popular musical, SCHOOL OF ROCK. What do both these selections have in common? They are both based off high grossing movies; one from 1985 and the other from 2003. I promise you the live versions are much more fun!

But it's not all fun and games (get it?) for this season. Well, maybe not games but still lots of fun. HOLIDAY CABARET is an entirely new venture here at Civic that is sure to warm your heart and holiday spirit. Although this type of holiday show is a first for Civic, I predict it won't be the last.

Everyone knows we have a plethora of extremely talented youth in our community and our Civic Youth Theatre program proudly provides a variety of productions to show off that talent! January's show, THE AMAZING MAURICE AND HIS EDUCATED RODENTS, will feature a wide age range of youth performers stretching their acting muscles portraying characters that are quite fantastical. Then, moving from fantasy to reality, our teens will have an opportunity to take the stage in our March production of ALMOST, MAINE or our April offering of MACBETH, which is an adaptation of the Bard's original script featuring 7 teenage, female-identifying actors portraying all the roles. Don't forget, all our youth shows can be selected in your flex-pass purchase!

Smack-dab in the middle of February, you will find another MainStage selection opening Valentine's Day weekend. Stressing over what to give that special someone for a valentine? Nothing says love and romance more than a ticket to PSYCHO BEACH PARTY! But seriously, who doesn't love a beach party in February?! And once the party is over, we fast track to May for our final MainStage show - URINETOWN: THE MUSICAL. Don't let the title mislead you, the content is both hilarious and provocative, with this satirical comedy extending far beyond toilet humor.

Beyond the season selections, you can also enjoy the Tour of Terror Walking Tour October 25th-26th, a variety of staged readings in the spring, Civic After Dark pop-up performances, OSFA improv shows almost every month, our Annual Season Reveal show April 12th, and the 13th Annual Short Play Festival June 27th -29th!

Depending on what show you are currently attending, I hope you are either looking forward to the above selections or remembering them fondly. This is a spectacular season that I am extremely proud and grateful to present. Much of that gratitude goes to our sponsors and donors who invest in Civic Theatre because they believe that the arts are an important part of a thriving community. Their generosity and support keep our lights on and the shows going. And tons of gratitude goes to you, our patrons. Thank you for purchasing your ticket to this performance. You are the reason we do what we do. You are the reason Civic is here to usher in our 93rd season- IGNITE!

Enjoy the show.

Tribute to John Christopher Jones and Civic Theatre of Greater Lafayette

Jim and Pat Ross remember when ALCOA agreed to underwrite a three-year program that would bring a number of rising young performing artists to the Lafayette area for six weeks a year.

The second performer to arrive in Lafayette, Indiana, was a young actor named John Christopher Jones, and the sponsor was Civic Theatre. Chris delighted many audiences with his theatrical ability. After his time in Lafayette, Chris returned to New York City and continued to build a career acting and directing on Broadway, off-Broadway, in video, and film. Christopher was a regular on "On Our Own" and "The Popcorn Kid." Movies include Moonstruck, Awakenings, and Desperate Hours. Christopher later developed Parkinson's disease, which has not kept him from performing and directing.

In what may be his greatest one-time performance, Chris and Dan Moran, both suffering from Parkinson's, star in the documentary "Me to Play." It is a performance of Beckett's End Game while also showing the daily challenge of dealing with Parkinson's Disease.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS

When it comes to holiday tunes, one truth seems to be universal: we hear the same songs over and over every year. Whether played on the radio, piped through department stores, or in the background of holiday gatherings, we know them all by heart. So, when we were approached about creating a Holiday Cabaret for Civic Theatre's 93rd season, we knew we wanted to introduce our audience to songs and stories they may never have heard before.

Usually, when a director starts a rehearsal process, there is a script, sheet music, and some stage directions to guide them. This was not the case for us. We developed this cabaret from the ground up. So, to bring you this unique evening of entertainment, we did what theatre artists do best - collaborate! From performers and production team members to our talented band, everyone had a hand in creating this production.

This time of year means something different to each of us. With shorter days and colder temperatures, winter offers us a moment to slow down and come together. It is our hope that Holiday Cabaret will be a testament to what happens when artists come together.

You can anticipate a few holiday classics, plenty of laughs, and all the magic of the season. Please sit back and enjoy Civic Theatre's Holiday Cabaret!

-Kate Martin and Brian Kocher

Who's Who in the CAST!

Rebecca Bryant is thrilled to be part of the Holiday Cabaret at Civic Theatre this holiday season. This is her first time on the Civic Theatre stage, and she is so thankful to everyone involved in this production for making her experience merry and bright! She would like to thank her mom for being her biggest supporter on and off the stage.

Daniel Condreay is excited to return to Civic Theatre! Daniel is a senior at Purdue majoring in Psychological Sciences and enjoys creating choreography in his spare time. Previous shows he has been in include The Play That Goes Wrong (Max), All Shook Up (Dean Hyde), 9 to 5 (Bob Enright), Love/Sick (Andy), The Prom (Dance Captain/Teen Ensemble) and Clue (Mr. Green). Daniel would like to thank Brian, Kate, Sawyer, Lisa, and the cast for making this show a fantastic experience and his mom for her constant love and support.

Martin Fernandez is honored to share the stage with this talented group! It is no secret that he is an avid fan of Christmas. For 29 years, he has decorated his classroom with 5,000 Christmas lights and four nine-foot Christmas trees, in addition to the five Christmas trees he has at home. On stage, Martin has been in numerous plays and musicals, most recently The Prom right here at Civic and Into the Woods at Jeff High School where he is an English teacher and theater manager. He is also a member of One Size Fits All comedy improv troupe. Thank you for supporting community theater, enjoy the show, and have a very happy holiday!

Meg Foley is happy to be making her Civic debut in The Holiday Cabaret. Previous experience with Civic included driving her daughter to theatre camp in early 2010s and participating as B in the 2011 reading of Three Tall Women. Meg also performed as Mother Ginger from 2010 -20 in Lafayette Ballet's The Nutcracker. Meg appreciates this opportunity to return to the stage after 37 years. Spending time with the wonderful talent and good spirit of her fellow cast members, the production team, and the crew has multiplied the feel-good energy of the season. Meg thanks Rich, Elaine, and many dear friends for their love and support. And she is grateful to the audience, for bringing their holiday mojo--may your days be merry and bright!

Brian Kocher was last seen teaching (and sweating) with the talented ensemble of The Prom (choreographer)! He has been lucky to play some fantastic roles at Civic such as Frank-N-Furter in The Rocky Horror Show, Albin in La Cage, The Baker in Into The Woods, William Barfée in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, and Dwayne in 9 to 5. When not on the stage, Brian is often working behind the scenes on productions such as Lucky Stiff (director/choreographer), Mamma Mia! (choreographer), and has been known to co-host a late-night cabaret! Cheers to supporting local artists. Enjoy the show!

Craig Martin has appeared in Civic Theatre productions such as Time Stands Still, Dead Man's Cell Phone, Mamma Mia!, and Murder on the Orient Express, as well as Purdue Theatre productions of The Crucible, As You Like It, and Bright Star. He has directed Lettice & Lovage, The Play That Goes Wrong, Flanagan's Wake, and Clue, and has authored and directed several 10-Minute plays. Craig thanks his lovely wife Wendy, son Sam, daughter/director Kate, and Brian and fellow cabaret cast members for their endless patience and support.

Kate Martin is thrilled to bring The Holiday Cabaret to the Monon Depot stage this season! Past Civic Theatre acting credits include Clue, 9 to 5: The Musical, Lucky Stiff, The Rocky Horror Show, and The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. Directing credits include Time Stands Still, In the Next Room, and John Lennon and Me. She would like to thank this talented ensemble, band, and crew for all the time and hard work they've put into making this cabaret a success, Lisa for her expertise on the keys, Sawyer for his unending enthusiasm, and her co-director, Brian, for just about everything under the sun! As always, she thanks her parents for their love and support. She hopes you enjoy The Holiday Cabaret!

Bob Mindrum is delighted to be sharing the stage once again with his wife, Cathy. He has performed in many Civic musicals and has directed three. Favorite roles include Thomas Jefferson (1776), Henry Higgins (My Fair Lady), Oliver Warbucks (Annie), and Sam Carmichael (Mamma Mia).

Bob retired in 2019 and is the director emeritus of the Purdue Memorial Union. He thanks Kate, Brian, Lisa, Sawyer and the entire cast and crew for their time and talent.

Cathy Mindrum is a veteran of the Lafayette Civic Theater, having performed in 20+ musical productions. Cathy was last seen rolling around the stage holding a football while playing Rog in 9 to 5: The Musical. Other favorite past roles include Rosie in Mamma Mia, Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady, and Grace in Annie. Offstage, Cathy is a senior scientific editor with Cook Research Incorporated and is a cantor and co-group leader for the 9 am choir at St. Thomas Aquinas. Thanks to Brian, Kate, Lisa, Sawyer, and the rest of the cast for making this show so much fun, and a special thanks to her husband, Bob, for happily joining her and sharing her love of the theater.

Kyla Moffitt is very excited to be a part of the Holiday Cabaret at Civic Theatre. She previously performed in The Prom (Alyssa Greene) and 9 to 5: The Musical. Kyla loves to perform and spends a lot of her free time doing karaoke and singing with friends. She would like to thank her director, cast, and crew for making this holiday season a blast!

Craig Plazony is a Lafayette Resident who graduated from Purdue University in 2017 with a degree in Computer and Electrical Engineering. He currently works for CPower Energy and lives with his loving husband of 10 years and their 2 dogs. This is his first production with Civic Theater, but he has been in many productions in other community theaters such as Caractacus Potts in "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang", Barfe in "Putnam County Spell Bee", and Lord Savage in "Jekyll & Hyde".

Rachel Young is excited to make her debut with Lafayette Civic after spending 6 years away from the stage! Originally from Kokomo, she has been a part of many shows within the community. Some of her favorite roles include: Grizabella (Cats), Joanne (RENT), Paulette (Legally Blonde) and Mme. Thenardier (Les Mis). She wants to say thanks to her wonderful husband, Zack, and amazing bonus kids Penelope and Milo for sacrificing some time with her to let her get back into doing what she loves. As well as Brian and Kate for taking a chance on someone new and making this an amazing experience for the whole cast! She couldn't dream of doing this with any other group of people!

He has loved seeing the talent here at Civic, and has thoroughly enjoyed learning more about running the behind-the-scenes aspects of theater! He wants to thank the cast, crew & Diana for putting up with all of his chaos!

Lisa Tally (Piano) is excited to be involved in The Holiday Cabaret — the twelfth Civic Theatre production she has accompanied, starting with Annie in 2003 and including, along the way, Cabaret, Into the Woods, and Lucky Stiff. She's delighted to have added so many new-to-her holiday songs to her stash of music!

Gage Gregory (Drums) is excited to be playing in the band for Lafayette Civic Theatre's production of Holiday Cabaret. His previous Lafayette Civic Theatre performances include drumming in School of Rock, The Prom, 9-5: The Musical, All Shook Up, and Lucky Stiff. Gage especially enjoys the more "jazzy" styles of Christmas music found in Holiday Cabaret!

Integrated Pest Management

Always a quality experience

Locally Owned and Operated

“Thank goodness for Smith Pest Control. They removed the creepy crawlies and have kept them from invading the theater and offices. Jeromy listened to us and provided treatments based on our needs! This is a community-minded, locally-owned business at its best!”

Ants • Spiders • Crawling Insects

Amazing service and totally reliable! Kid and pet friendly and his follow ups are second to none. Highly recommend. We had an ant issue and not only are they gone and managed quickly, Jeromy follows up timely and frequently to ensure amazing customer service. We will continue with the quarterly management of all pests and critters without hesitation and we are comfortable to let him know if we have a concern.
