A NOTE FROM THE PRODUCING ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Welcome to Civic Theatre's 93rd season- IGNITE! This theme encompasses all the passion and energy our staff and volunteers are feeling about our very ambitious line-up of exciting shows this season! Every year we try and offer a broad variety of offerings to give our audiences a smorgasbord of high-quality theatre to enjoy. And this year is no exception.

We kick off the season with madcap hilarity and mystery as we present one of the most produced plays currently circulating through community and regional theaters. CLUE! And we continue the comedic ride as we blend MainStage and Civic Youth actors in the incredibly popular musical, SCHOOL OF ROCK. What do both these selections have in common? They are both based off high grossing movies; one from 1985 and the other from 2003. I promise you the live versions are much more fun!

But it's not all fun and games (get it?) for this season. Well, maybe not games but still lots of fun. HOLIDAY CABARET is an entirely new venture here at Civic that is sure to warm your heart and holiday spirit. Although this type of holiday show is a first for Civic, I predict it won't be the last.

Everyone knows we have a plethora of extremely talented youth in our community and our Civic Youth Theatre program proudly provides a variety of productions to show off that talent! January's show, THE AMAZING MAURICE AND HIS EDUCATED RODENTS, will feature a wide age range of youth performers stretching their acting muscles portraying characters that are quite fantastical. Then, moving from fantasy to reality, our teens will have an opportunity to take the stage in our March production of ALMOST, MAINE or our April offering of MACBETH, which is an adaptation of the Bard's original script featuring 7 teenage, female-identifying actors portraying all the roles. Don't forget, all our youth shows can be selected in your flex-pass purchase!

Smack-dab in the middle of February, you will find another MainStage selection opening Valentine's Day weekend. Stressing over what to give that special someone for a valentine? Nothing says love and romance more than a ticket to PSYCHO BEACH PARTY! But seriously, who doesn't love a beach party in February?! And once the party is over, we fast track to May for our final MainStage show - URINETOWN: THE MUSICAL. Don't let the title mislead you, the content is both hilarious and provocative, with this satirical comedy extending far beyond toilet humor.

Beyond the season selections, you can also enjoy the Tour of Terror Walking Tour October 25th-26th, a variety of staged readings in the spring, Civic After Dark pop-up performances, OSFA improv shows almost every month, our Annual Season Reveal show April 12th, and the 13th Annual Short Play Festival June 27th -29th!

Depending on what show you are currently attending, I hope you are either looking forward to the above selections or remembering them fondly. This is a spectacular season that I am extremely proud and grateful to present. Much of that gratitude goes to our sponsors and donors who invest in Civic Theatre because they believe that the arts are an important part of a thriving community. Their generosity and support keep our lights on and the shows going. And tons of gratitude goes to you, our patrons. Thank you for purchasing your ticket to this performance. You are the reason we do what we do. You are the reason Civic is here to usher in our 93rd season- IGNITE!

Enjoy the show.

Tribute to John Christopher Jones and Civic Theatre of Greater Lafayette

Jim and Pat Ross remember when ALCOA agreed to underwrite a three-year program that would bring a number of rising young performing artists to the Lafayette area for six weeks a year.

The second performer to arrive in Lafayette, Indiana, was a young actor named John Christopher Jones, and the sponsor was Civic Theatre. Chris delighted many audiences with his theatrical ability. After his time in Lafayette, Chris returned to New York City and continued to build a career acting and directing on Broadway, off-Broadway, in video, and film. Christopher was a regular on "On Our Own" and "The Popcorn Kid." Movies include Moonstruck, Awakenings, and Desperate Hours. Christopher later developed Parkinson's disease, which has not kept him from performing and directing.

In what may be his greatest one-time performance, Chris and Dan Moran, both suffering from Parkinson's, star in the documentary "Me to Play." It is a performance of Beckett's End Game while also showing the daily challenge of dealing with Parkinson's Disease.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

“You gotta dance, boss. You can think and you can fight, but the world’s always movin’, and if you wanna stay ahead, you gotta dance.”

From The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents by Terry Pratchett

Hello to all who have wandered in, wondering what exactly is in store for the next 2 hours.

The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents is fun, a little ridiculous, and surprisingly deep. Yes, it’s a fantasy. Yes, it’s a parody of the pied piper. Yes, there are talking animals. But it’s also about stories, friendship and how to think about the world around you. It’s about morality. It’s about society. It’s about death. All of this, all these themes and lessons, wrapped up into a story children and adults alike can enjoy. It all takes place on the Discworld - a fantastical universe created by the late and great Sir Terry Pratchett. And really, that’s all the worldbuilding you need. The rest is taken care of by the actors, the stage, and some suspension of disbelief.

In trying to stage The Amazing Maurice, I took note from the adaptor, and kept our set small and scene changes even smaller. The focus is on the story - how it weaves and wanders from one character to the next until everything connects and we leave with a happy ending. This is something Terry does incredibly well as a narrator, and bringing it to the stage is its own unique challenge. I hope you are able to sit back and enjoy all the little details.

And on a final, more personal note: this show is a lot of things to me. It’s my first director’s credit, a huge undertaking I’m still not sure I was mentally prepared for but have enjoyed nonetheless. It’s a chance to share one of my favorite stories by one of my favorite authors. It’s another way to show off just how talented the youth in this community are. It’s a portal to another world where rats can talk, learn, and grow just like us. It’s a way to laugh, a way to cry. And, perhaps most important to me, it’s a love letter to my dad, who started and fostered a love for reading I’d be lost without. Love you lots, Dad.

That’s probably enough from me, when you’re really here to see these amazing actors. Thank you all for taking the time to come support the show!

-Em Miller

She extends her love and thanks to all the folks have worked with her and supported her along the way.

Oliver Boulac (Sardines) is a sixth grader at Battle Ground Middle. He is thrilled to be part of The Amazing Maurice. Oliver has previously been on stage as Schroeder in A Charlie Brown Christmas and Winthrop in Harrison's The Music Man. In his free time he likes to play with his own educated rodents (Sadie, Suke and Mabel) and playing Fortnite, piano, and drawing. Oliver would like to thank his brother Simon for his support with auditions. He would also like to thank the cast and crew, Em, Micah and Anna for being wonderful throughout this whole experience.

Amelie Deery (Nourishing) is thrilled to have the opportunity to be in this show. This is her first production with Civic and her third production ever. She is very happy to have been able to play the role of Nourishing in this production. Apart from theater, Amelie likes writing fictional stories and art. She would like to thank the cast and directors for an amazing show and a fun experience. She would also like to thank everyone in the audience who came to watch and support her.

Kat Bayley (Ron) has always wanted to be an actor since she was a child. Her siblings have participated in Civic, so she wanted to too. She has been in backstage crew for A Charlie Brown Christmas, Matilda, and Godspell. She was a puppy in 101 Dalmatians, baker's wife/ensemble in Beauty and the Beast, and Cop in Footloose. She has also helped out with many workshops for kids. She is thankful to her directors, fellow cast, and crew for an amazing production!

Isaac Garman (Bill) was in Civic's summer camp for the production of Twelfth Night (Andrew) and has enjoyed his time at Civic since. He enjoys exploring the world around him and learning new things. He is a 7th grader at Battle Ground Middle School. Isaac would like to thank his wonderful parents for supporting his theatre journey and thank the production crew and directors for making the show possible.

Leslie Annin (Feedsfour/Rat/Rat Piper) is really excited to be a part of Civic Youth's production of The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents. Previous shows she has been a part of are Beauty and the Beast (Butcher/Candleseller), Airness (Announcer 3), Footloose (Stevie), and Godspell (Ensemble). Outside of acting she enjoys reading, writing, and listening to music. She would like to thank her directors, cast, and crew. She would also like to thank her parents and her older cousin, for introducing her theater.

Avery Harbison (Bitesize/Rat 1) is a 5th grader at Wea Elementary. She is excited to make her theater debut as “Bitesize” and a member of the rat ensemble in The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents. Outside of theater, Avery enjoys playing soccer, singing, and spending time with her sisters, Saylor and Nora. She is thrilled to be part of this production and thanks her family for their support!

Ainsley Lange (Delicious/Rat 2) is a 4th grader at Wyandotte Elementary. She is excited to be in her very first Civic Theater production. Ainsley likes to play the piano, craft, and play with her dog, Carey. She would like to thank her parents for rides to rehearsal and Grandma Cathy for introducing her to the world of theater.

Naomi Gibert (Specialoffer/Rat 3) is a 4th grader at Lafayette Christian School and is so excited to have her first role in a Civic production. She loves dancing, playing the violin and piano, singing and acting. She looks forward to many more opportunities to perform and is thankful to her parents and siblings for supporting and encouraging her to be brave and try new things.

Cadence Librie (Kidney/Rat 4) is very excited to be in her first CYT show. She is 8 years old and in 3rd grade at Edgelea Elementary. When she’s not acting, she enjoys dance classes, surfing (in Hawaii, where she is from), swimming, and singing. She would like to thank her family and friends for their support. Her favorite thing about Maurice is getting to use her British accent. She is grateful for the guidance of the directors and other cast members.

Beth McVey (Inbrine/Agent/Other Rat) is a 7th grader at West Lafayette Jr/Sr High School. She has previously acted in Descendants Jr. (Auradon Ensemble), Footloose (Dani), and Moana Jr. (Ocean/Monster/Shiny Ensembles), as well as The Headless Horseman (Dame Van Tassel) and A Christmas Carol (Ghost of Christmas Past) at her school. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her, her director, assistant director, stage manager, and talented castmates.

Jackson Phillips (Rat King Voice/Mayor/Sally) is a senior at Jefferson High School and an avid actor, this being their 13th show and the 2nd and last show with Civic Youth Theatre, their most recent show being Jefferson High School's production of Into the Woods playing Jack. They have loved being at Civic and have had a blast being a part of Civic Youth Theatre and a part of this production, and they hope you have a blast watching it.

Zion Najee-ullah (Doppelpunkt/Gary) is a senior at Jefferson High School. This is their second play at Civic, but 12th play overall, including works such as Romeo and Juliet (Paris), Twelfth Night (Malvolio), Peter Pan (Nibs), The SpongeBob Musical, and many more. They've only been in theatre since freshman year but have been a performer since first grade when doing ballet. Performance is something that has always grabbed them and being a part of this performance and seeing his younger co-stars find that appeal has been incredibly rewarding.

Miriam Kline (KeeKee Rat/Clockwork Rat/Boy) is very excited to perform in her first production. When she isn't performing, she enjoys drawing, swimming, reading, and singing. Miriam is grateful to the directors for her first Civic Theater experience!

Who's Who in the CREW!

Em Miller (Director) is, as always, absolutely delighted to work with the amazing youth at Civic. Though this is their directorial debut, they are usually involved with Civic in some capacity, whether it be bartending, acting, or (most often) pulling strings somewhere behind the scenes - like stage managing the season opener Clue. Other recent credits include choreographer for 9 to 5 and Footloose Jr. and backstage crew during The Prom. They would like to thank this cast for being the best, Anna for keeping things together, Rachel for always lending a helping hand, and Micah for literally everything. And you, for supporting local theater! Enjoy the show!

Micah Davis (Assistant Director) has loved getting to be a part of this fantastical production. While she tends to spend more time onstage, you may have recently seen her in Clue (Yvette) or Love/Sick (Girl/Sarah), she absolutely loves getting to work behind the scenes as well. In the past, she directed Civic's She Kills Monsters and has been the backstage manager for numerous productions. Youth theatre holds a special place in her heart, and she'd like to thank all the kids for their hard work, dedication, and limitless spunk throughout the process. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Anna Graham (Stage Manager) feels so privileged to be a part of this show. This is her first time properly stage managing a show but she has plenty of experience in other parts of theatre. Her most memorable role was Martha in Arsenic and Old Lace. She would like to thank Em and Micah for giving her this wonderful opportunity, the cast and crew for making this such a fun experience, and her roommates for picking up the slack these past months. She has had the best time working with everyone and hopes to see them again in future productions.

Alyse Kline (Backstage Manager) is thrilled to be the backstage manager for The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents! She previously played Jessie Sanderson and Miss Macapugay in School of Rock, Ethel in Footloose, was part of the ensemble in Descendants, and worked behind the scenes as part of the tech crew for Beauty and the Beast. When she's not on stage or backstage, she enjoys performing with her school's pep band, participating in marching band, reading, and spending time with her family. She is grateful for the support of her friends and family and hopes you enjoy the show!

Sawyer Mariga (Lighting Designer) is thrilled to be light designing The Amazing Maurice! You may have seen him rocking out in Airness as Golden Thunder, buzzing around the stage as the Spelling Bee in The Phantom Tollbooth, or when Sawyer isn't on stage, you may have seen him stage managing shows! He has stage-managed shows, including The Holiday Cabaret, Gruesome Playground Injuries, Footloose: Youth Edition and the 12th Annual Playfest! He also assistant-stage managed School of Rock earlier this season! Past shows he has light-designed for are The Holiday Cabaret, School of Rock, the 12th Annual Playfest, and The Prom: The Musical! Once Sawyer graduates from Purdue, he aspires to get his Master's in Stage Management and professionally stage-manage Broadway Shows! He would like to thank Em, Micha, and Anna for making this a fantastic experience. He would also like to thank Raquel Lopez, Laurie Russell, TJ Rosa, Halle Cansdale, and his family for their continuous support!
