A Note from the Producing Artistic Director –

As the curtain rises on our 95th season, I find myself filled with the kind of anticipation that only live theatre can bring; that electric sense that something extraordinary is about to happen and we get to experience it together.

Our ASTOUNDing new season of productions has been chosen with you in mind, our curious, passionate, and wonderfully adventurous audience. This season, we've dreamed big (and then a little bigger). You'll find stories that make you laugh out loud, moments that catch in your throat, and characters who linger in your heart long after the lights come up.

Theatre is a shared experience. It's a room full of strangers becoming a community for a few fleeting hours. It's the gasps, the laughter, the tears, and the exhilarating silence you can feel. And in a world that often pulls us apart, that togetherness feels more meaningful than ever.

So, whether you're a longtime subscriber or joining us for the first time, thank you for being part of this journey. Thank you for supporting local art and for believing in the magic of theatre and what it brings to our community.

We can't wait to welcome you back to Civic Theatre.

Your seat is waiting.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

There is something wonderfully full-circle about directing Disney's The Aristocats KIDS.

My very first experience teaching with Civic Youth Theatre was co-teaching an Aristocats KIDS class, and many of the young artists you'll see onstage today were in that class. Two weeks after they performed, my daughter was born; now, she has appeared in two Civic summer camp shows alongside many of those same kids. Even our production team is made up entirely of people I first met through other Civic productions, parents and youth performers alike—theatre has a funny way of building communities like that.

This production also marks a new beginning: Disney's The Aristocats KIDS is the first full Civic production in decades to rehearse and perform in Duncan Hall. It feels fitting that a show with so much history for many of us gets to be part of the beginning of something new.

I believe deeply that young people deserve to be taken seriously as artists, and this cast made that easy. I have never worked with a more prepared cast, of any age. In an incredibly accelerated rehearsal process, they have shown up ready to work—some off-book as early as day two! They ask questions, make choices, take notes, support one another, and come back ready for more. They are also wonderfully, gloriously silly; proof that rigor and joy don't have to be opposites. The result is, as this cast would tell you, exquisite.

I am enormously grateful to our production team; Civic's staff and board; the staff at Duncan Hall; and our families for making this production possible. Most of all, I am grateful to this cast for being brave, ridiculous, curious, hardworking, and creative.

Youth theatre is never just the show in front of you. It is one moment in the much longer story of who these young people are becoming. I feel extraordinarily lucky to have been around for more than one chapter of this one.

Thank you for being here. I hope you find it every bit as exquisite as we do.

Dr. Abigail Allen
Director & Music Director

Who's Who in the CAST!

THEODORA DAVIS (Duchess) is so excited to be in Disney's The Aristocats Kids with Civic. In the past, she was in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. (Matilda) and various shows at Jefferson High School and Sunnyside Intermediate, where she gets her education. She is in 6th grade, and in her free time likes to cook, read, and play games with her younger sister. She would like to thank her parents for supporting her and the audience for watching.

LIAM HENSLEY (Thomas O'Malley) is overjoyed to be back! Previously, he appeared in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr (Grandpa Joe), Fun Home (John Bechdel), Disney's The Jungle Book Kids (Jungle Thistle), Seussical the Musical (Horton the Elephant), and School of Rock (Billy Sandford). Liam has too many people to thank, so he'd like to mention everyone who has helped him find himself through Civic, and who helps him continue to grow. Liam is especially grateful to the cast, crew and the best production team of Disney's The Aristocats Kids for helping him sing the song in his heart, and to his parents for how hard they work.

LACHLAN HENSLEY (Toulouse) is thrilled to be onstage for his fourth performance with Civic. He was Grandpa George in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr, as well as Grumpy Monkey in Disney's The Jungle Book Kids, and a Who in Seussical the Musical. He would like to thank the cast, crew and the production team of Disney's The Aristocats Kids for making this such a memorable experience, including his amazing director Abby Allen for helping him be brave. Lachlan would also like to thank Benji Braswell for all the advice and instruction, and his parents for all of the extra work they do so he can live his dreams.

LILA BELLOWS (Marie) is super excited to be in Disney's The Aristocats Kids! This is her first show at Civic Theatre. She was previously seen as Young Emily in Our Town with Purdue Department of Theatre and Dance. She enjoys singing in her choir at school, dancing, and writing songs. Lila would like to thank the directors for giving her this opportunity, and her fellow Aristo-cast!

PATRICK SLACK (Berlioz) is now in his third production with Civic Theatre. His previous shows include Seussical the Musical (Jungle Animal) and most recently with Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. (Oompa Loompa). He is really excited to be in Disney's The Aristocats Kids. Patrick would like to thank his dog Chewy for being awesome, his Mom for taking him to the audition and all the rehearsals, his dad for all the things, and his siblings for supporting him. He would also like to thank Abby, Griffin, Shaeleigh, Erin, Molly, and Heather for making this show possible.

PENELOPE MEADOWS (Madame) is a 7th grader at Tecumseh Jr High School, and she is overjoyed to be performing with Civic Theatre again! In the past, she has been a Wonkette in Civic Theatre's production of Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr., and she was a munchkin/flying monkey in Jefferson High School's production of The Wizard of Oz. When she isn't acting, Penelope enjoys singing, reading, researching, and crafting. She would like to thank her director, cast mates, and everyone that made this show possible, along with her family and friends for their support.

SCARLETT ILYUK (Edgar) is so excited to be a part of Disney's The Aristocats Kids! This is her second time officially onstage at Civic Theatre, as you may have seen her in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. (Wonkette). When she's not performing, she enjoys eating food, dancing, watching TV, and playing with her chihuahuas, Reina and Canela. She would like to thank her director and crew for putting on this production, her parents and sister for cheering her on, and her best theatre friends, Theodora, Maeve, Annika, and Liam, for being so nice and encouraging her to audition.

ANNIKA BOQUIST (Roquefort) is so excited to be a part of the Civic Theatre production of Disney's The Aristocats Kids. Past Civic performances include Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. (The Candy Man), Beetlejuice Jr. (Sky), and Seussical the Musical (Gertrude McFugg). She would like to give a special thanks to her parents for all the driving, support, and help and her voice teacher Abby Brown.

GRACE-ANN HOFFINE (Abigail Gable) is a 5th grader at Battle Ground Intermediate School. She likes to make kandi, paper dragons, and more. This is her first time with a Civic Theatre play, but her first time on stage was at Harrison High School 10 minute play serious in 4th grade. She would like to thank Chloe, Johanna, Shoop, and Sophia for encouraging her and helping her to grow to love theatre.

CADENCE LIBRIE (Amelia Gable) is overjoyed to be part of another CYT production. She was previously in CYT's The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents (Kidney). Cadence is in 5th grade at Sunnyside Intermediate. Originally from Hawaii, Cadence enjoys surfing, snorkeling, and swimming. Since moving to Indiana, she enjoys spending time with family, dancing (tap, hip hop, and jazz/ballet), and playing virtual reality games on Meta Quest. She would like to thank her directors, cast, and crew for going on this journey with her, and big thanks to her very supportive family, especially her mom and grandparents.

EDIE DUNN (Napoleon) is honored to be making her Civic debut in Disney's The Aristocats Kids. She was previously in Disney's The Lion King Jr. as an ensemble member. Edie enjoys writing weird fanfiction, wildebeests, and drawing especially fluffy cats. She also likes milkshakes. Edie would like to thank her director, mom, dad, and the rest of the dog pack. Also, love to S.J.! (she/they)

CALLA JEAN JELLIFFE (Scat Cat) is a 6th Grader at Battleground Middle School. If she is awake, she is probably singing! Calla would like to thank her parents, siblings, friends, and family for their support. She would also like to thank the director, cast, and crew for making Disney's The Aristocats Kids such a wonderful experience to participate in. This role is Calla's theatrical debut.

MIRIAM KLINE (Wacky Cat) is thrilled to be part of Disney's The Aristocats Kids. This is her third Civic Theatre show. Previous roles include a coil in Kaa from Disney's The Jungle Book Kids, a munchkin in The Wizard of Oz, and various rat cameos in The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, swimming, singing, and playing Mario Kart with friends. Miriam would like to thank the crew, directors, and cast for making this a purrrfect show! Have a jazzy good time!

AVA PENTICUFF (Mad Cat) is excited to be in Disney's The Aristocats Kids! This is her third production in the past year, and she can officially say she is living her dream of being on stage! She loves acting, dancing, making people laugh, and, of course, being a little dramatic. Ava is so thankful for her family and friends who always cheer her on, support her crazy theater dreams, and even travel to see her perform. She hopes you enjoy the show and have as much fun watching it as she has had being part of it!

CHARLOTTE ADLER (Slick Cat) is very excited to have a part in Disney's The Aristocats Kids. This is her second time in a production at Civic. Her previous show was Disney's The Jungle Book Kids as Shere Khan. When offstage she enjoys activities such as singing in choir, hanging out with friends, and reading. She would like to thank her director, cast, and crew for helping her have the time of her life. She would also like to thank her family and her best friends for support. Last but not least she would like to thank the audience for being here. Enjoy the show!

AC PARKS (Hep Cat) is a 7th grader at Tecumseh where she plays cello in the orchestra and sings soprano in Tecumseh Singers. She has previously performed in Disney's The Jungle Book Kids (Kaa Coil) and multiple commercials for Ravensburger games. She is also currently in Jefferson High School's Disney's The Little Mermaid (Guppy). AC is excited to be performing with some of her good friends and has loved getting to know her new castmates! She's looking forward to sharing Disney's The Aristocats Kids production with each audience. Outside of performing, AC likes to read, research, play board games, and photograph wildlife.

ADA DUNN (Lafayette) is so excited to be making her debut Civic role. Previously she played a Lioness in Disney's The Lion King Jr. at Sugar Creek Youth Theatre. Ada also enjoys reading, writing, and rodents, especially beavers and moles. She is passionate about keeping artificial intelligence out of artistic places, and encourages you to support human-made art. She wants to thank her mother, father, sister, and S.J., who supported her throughout this experience! (she/her)

LISSIE HENSLEY (Vichy) is so happy to be appearing in her fourth Civic Production. Previously, she was an Oompa Loompa in Roald Dah's Willy Wonka Jr. Baby Elephant in Disney's The Jungle Book Kids, and a Who in Seussical the Musical. She is so thankful to Civic for making it so she gets to stay up past her bedtime, and for helping her make so many new friends! Lissie would like to thank the entire Disney's The Aristocats Kids production team for making space for her, the rest of the cast for helping her have so much fun at rehearsals, and her mother for everything.

MAEVE DAVIS (Ssoise) is elated to be a part of Disney's The Aristocats Kids. She has previously been in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. (ensemble). She goes to Edgelea Elementary as a second grader and her favorite subject is art. In her free time she enjoys shopping, crafting, and watching TV. She would like to thank her sister and babysitter for helping with auditions.

Who's Who in the CREW!

DR. ABIGAEAL ALLEN (Director/Music Director) is an educator, theatre artist, and firm believer that young people are capable of making really great art. She teaches English at Tecumseh Junior High School and has spent much of her time since moving to Lafayette to pursue her doctorate at Purdue in 2023 at Civic, working with young artists through productions, classes, and camps—select favorites include Disney Dance, Wicked, Beetlejuice Jr., and Seussical the Musical. Her work in theatre has taken her onstage, backstage, into the rehearsal room, and just about everywhere in between as a director, music director, choreographer, performer, stage manager, and teaching artist. Outside of the classroom and theatre, Abigail loves reading, crafting, playing video games, watching movies, and—most of all—adventures with her husband and daughter.

GRIFFIN VALIANT (Stage Manager) is absolutely thrilled to be stage managing Disney's The Aristocats Kids. Earlier this year he also stage managed Disney's The Jungle Book Kids at Civic. When not in the booth, he has also been on stage with many different civic productions. Most recently, he was in Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr and Treasure Island on the Wabash. Outside of Theatre, he enjoys his own cats, programming, and his job.

SHAELEIGH HRESKOWSKY (Choreographer) is excited to make her choreographic debut with Disney's The Aristocats Kids! Some recent stage credits include Newsies and The SpongeBob Musical with Summer Stock Stage Mainstage, Treasure Island (Long John Silver) and Beetlejuice Jr. (Miss Argentina) with Civic Theatre of Greater Lafayette. Shaeleigh is incredibly grateful for the opportunity to step into this new creative role and would like to thank the entire cast and crew for their hard work, dedication, and support. She plans to study musical theater and education at Ball State University, with dreams of one day performing on Broadway.

ERIN HRESKOWSKY (Assistant Director) is excited to step into a new role with Disney's The Aristocats Kids! A lifelong band kid turned theater mom, Erin has spent years cheering from the audience, supporting young performers, and producing children's theater productions. This time, she's trading her audience seat for a spot behind the scenes as Assistant Director. Erin is grateful for the opportunity to learn, create, and be part of this wonderful production. She would like to thank the cast, crew, and their families for their hard work, enthusiasm, and dedication—and especially for welcoming this theater mom into the mix!

MOLLY SANDS (Backstage Manager) would like to welcome you to the show, and thank you for coming! She is so proud of all of the wonderful kids who had the bravery and passion to step out of their comfort zones, and onto the stage to put on this spectacle. This is her first time working behind the scenes, but she's sure it won't be her last. She would like to thank Abby for giving her this opportunity. She hopes you enjoy the show!

HEATHER HENSLEY (Costumer and Prop Master) is honored to be beginning her third season with Civic. She started as a Civic parent and now participates in a wide variety of ways. Previously, she assisted with costumes on Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr and The Hobbit, as well as taught at Defying Gravity summer camps. When she's not at the theatre, she homeschools her six children. Heather is thankful to everyone at Civic who has embraced her family with open arms so that they can do what they love, and to her family for juggling her absence so that everyone gets a chance to participate!

LOGAN HENSLEY (Puppet Master) is thrilled to be involved with Disney's The Aristocats Jr. He was previously in The Hobbit as Balin/Bifur/Ori, but this is the first time he has been a backstage member. He would like to thank his mom for her support, and Abby for trusting him to be a part of her show.

Mission:

To Enhance the Artistic and Cultural Environment of Greater Lafayette Through Theatrical Productions & Educational Opportunities.

Vision:

We envision a community that values the performing arts and respects the transformational experience that the theatrical arts & arts education bring to the people of Greater Lafayette and our surrounding communities.

Values:

We are committed to decision-making that centers on inclusiveness, diversity, equity, and accessibility. We practice advocacy, continuous learning, and accountability to help build a more inclusive community. We believe theatre serves a vital role in creating a more diverse, pluralistic society where acceptance, mutual respect, and cooperation are the foundation.
