Tribute to John Christopher Jones and Civic Theatre of Greater Lafayette

Jim and Pat Ross remember when ALCOA agreed to underwrite a three-year program that would bring a number of rising young performing artists to the Lafayette area for six weeks a year.

The second performer to arrive in Lafayette, Indiana, was a young actor named John Christopher Jones, and the sponsor was Civic Theatre. Chris delighted many audiences with his theatrical ability. After his time in Lafayette, Chris returned to New York City and continued to build a career acting and directing on Broadway, off-Broadway, in video, and film. Christopher was a regular on "On Our Own" and "The Popcorn Kid." Movies include Moonstruck, Awakenings, and Desperate Hours. Christopher later developed Parkinson's disease, which has not kept him from performing and directing.

In what may be his greatest one-time performance, Chris and Dan Moran, both suffering from Parkinson's, star in the documentary "Me to Play." It is a performance of Beckett's End Game while also showing the daily challenge of dealing with Parkinson's Disease.

Special Thanks

We are so grateful for all our parent volunteers, our counselors, and the incredibly supportive members of the community that came together to make this opportunity for our campers possible this summer. Special thanks to Purdue University and the chair of the theatre and dance department, Rich Dionne for allowing us to use the Mallett theatre space at Pao Hall this summer to rehearse, you were such a gracious host. Thank you to Jacelyn Villinski for stepping up as an insightful assistant director and Rivers R. Blue for being, as always, an incredibly professional stage manager throughout the process. Without both their hard work and dedication, the show simply would not have been possible. Shout out to our amazing costumers who volunteered so much time to ensure our campers felt comfortable and looked incredible on-stage including Natalie Lucas, Annalyse Ewing and Christy Carr. We are so grateful for Flourish for partnering with us to assist in prop creating through one of their own camps and the artistic work of Amanda Kennedy and her students. Last but certainly not least we want to thank our fabulous technicians and builders who helped load in the set and ensure our sound was running properly including Josh Kerkhoff, Alan Holtman, John O'Malley, Owen Taylor, Blaise Shutes, Em Bogan, and Dan Rayman. We all know theatre is a team sport and without you we would be lost.

A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

In bringing Disney's Descendants to life on our stage, our incredible team has been struck daily by how powerfully this unique story speaks to the youth of our community. At its heart, this musical celebrates the vibrant diversity that makes our town and its students special.

Each character in Descendants grapples with expectations and pressures placed upon them from prior generations and must decide who they truly want to be in spite of the roles they have been placed into. In the same way, our young cast members have poured their unique talents and perspectives into these theatrical roles, reminding us that our differences, both in talents and perspectives, are what make us strong as an ensemble and as a community.

The journey of the "Evils" challenges us to look beyond surface judgments. It reminds us that we all have the capacity for both good and bad choices within us. By embracing this complexity, we open doors to understanding and growth, as well as the realization that we all hold both within us. It is up to each of us to choose what we do with the enormous responsibility of who we each individually are, but only together can we truly make impactful change.

Our hope is that this production inspires audience members of all ages to celebrate what makes them unique. May it encourage us all to create a community where everyone feels they belong. We are immensely proud of the hard work, creativity, and most importantly the heart our young performers have poured into this show. Their energy and passion remind us that the future is bright when we empower the next generation to shine and do it in their own creative and innovative way.

Thank you for so much for supporting Civic Youth Theatre! Don't forget that we are better together.

Benji Braswell

Thank goodness for Smith Pest Control. They removed the creepy crawlies and have kept them from invading the theater and offices. Jeromy listened to us and provided treatments based on our needs! This is a community-minded, locally-owned business at its best!

Ants • Spiders • Crawling Insects

Amazing service and totally reliable! Kid and pet friendly and his follow ups are second to none. Highly recommend. We had an ant issue and not only are they gone and managed quickly, Jeromy follows up timely and frequently to ensure amazing customer service. We will continue with the quarterly management of all pests and critters without hesitation and we are comfortable to let him know if we have a concern.

YWCA IS ON

“ I’m Leo, and I’m proud to be a WYSE One! I get such a kick out of seeing my little girl in dance classes at YWCA. My wife and I are so impressed with the teachers and we love how supportive and welcoming they are. My kid is really young, but the patience the instructors have is incredible. She’s learning so much more than just how to dance.”

“I didn’t realize how many things YWCA does and what valuable services they bring to the community. We decided to donate because as amazing as the dance classes are, the benefit to Lafayette is even greater.”
